

Recognising the outstanding dedication of individuals and teams working in adult social care

A celebration of the Surrey Care Awards

Duchess's Stand, Epsom Downs Racecourse - 18th November 2016

Celebrating the very best people working in Care

The Lord-Lieutenant of Surrey Mr Michael More-Molyneux was our quest of honour

Sylvie Blackmore was our compere for the evening

Our eighth annual Awards ceremony gave us all a great opportunity to celebrate the sterling work undertaken by care staff day in and day out across the county. With staff recruitment and retention a key issue for care providers, it's even more important for us to recognise the contribution and highlight the achievements of our care workforce.

The Surrey Care Awards put social care work in the spotlight and generate a vast amount of positive publicity for the sector whilst emphasising the wide range of jobs and career opportunities available within it. The care sector is one of Surrey's biggest employers and we aim to raise the profile of this vital area of the county's economy.

So let's celebrate the achievements of those individuals, care teams and providers who do so much to make us proud to be working in social care in Surrey.

Every year I am in awe of the incredible work undertaken and delivered by those who work in the Social Care environment and by the passion that drives them all to give more than could ever be expected; making the world a far better place for the people and the families and friends of those they touch. Sylvie Blackmore

I did want to thank you ALL for a wonderful evening last Friday. As usual, achieved with your total professionalism and grace... Wonderful evening and we were tickled pink with Chrissie Ager's win... so totally deserved, too, so it was lovely for her. " Ann Spencer, Meath Epilepsy Charity

Actress Jenny Seagrove was our guest

A standing ovation for the

B B C SURREY Our thanks to BBC Surrey who did a tremendous job of helping us raise the profile of social care in the run up to the Awards. Presenter Mike Buxton chatted to finalists Alastair Shanks (Right at Home); Christine Ager (The Meath); Stephen DiPlacito

(Welmede) and Carla Dixon-Peart (Beritaz Care) on the Drive at 5 show in the week of the Awards and on the Friday just before the event Jamie Crick interviewed both Erica Lockhart and Sylvie Blackmore, giving the Awards

We'd like to thank everyone who nominated staff and of course our generous Sponsors who make the Surrey Care Awards possible
